

Paper copies

Some of the children have requested that we make the newsletter available as a paper copy so they can take it home to read.

From today, there will be 20 copies printed for each class and the children can take one if they choose. The newsletter will continue to be available on the website if the paper copies run out.

Happy St David's Day!

Our wonderful Site Manager Ivan has gone to the trouble of raising the flag of Wales on our flagpole. Our children have asked lots of questions today about why it's there which has prompted discussions about St David's day. Enjoy your celebrations if you or your family are Welsh!

Bewsey Lodge Primary School Weekly Newsletter

Friday 1st March 2024

What Will You Read This Weekend?

Next Tuesday is World Book Day and everyone in school is really looking forward to it. We have a brilliant storyteller who is coming in to work in classes, Leila will be visiting classes so that the children can read to her and adults will be moving around classes sharing their favourite stories.

Mrs Marsh, our English Leader, has asked you all to send in photos of the children reading their favourite story at bedtime. All photos sent in will be displayed in school and our top 5 favourites will win a little Easter egg. We have chosen the theme of 'chilled-out' reading because we find that reading sessions, whether at home or at school, are times of relaxed, calmness – something we want to encourage in the minds of our children. We are therefore inviting children to come into school next Tuesday dressed in their chilled-out clothes. This could be pyjamas, a onesie or simply their favourite comfy loungewear. We hope that in choosing this theme, we are making 'dress-up' cheaper and a little less stressful.

Please join in with our little competition if you can and share your best photos of your child reading a book in their comfy place. It can be snuggled up in bed, sharing a book with someone or simply chilled out somewhere enjoying the story by themselves. You can send entries to office@bewseylodge.co.uk or to Facebook Messenger.

Have a great weekend everyone, Mrs Williams
