Happy birthday Rosa.....well actually, it's happy birthday for Sunday as she was born on 4th February 1913 so she would have been 111 this Sunday.

To celebrate, the children were invited to come to school today dressed in green as this is the colour of our Rosa house. This year we will celebrate the birthdays of all of our house namesakes and we will always try and organise a fun event that families and children from all of the houses can get involved in. For Rosa's birthday, we are having a "design a t-shirt" competition. Because Rosa Parks was such an influential person in the drive for fairness and equality, we have asked the children to create a design for a t-shirt, based on the idea of "Dreams and Goals" – the themes being studied in Jigsaw lessons this half term. It could be their dreams and goals or it could reflect the life and/or dreams and goals of Rosa Parks. Children will complete their t-shirt design in school during lesson time and then bring home copies of that design. The challenge is to then reflect this idea on a t-shirt made at home; the children could use an old t-shirt, school shirt or one that is now too small for them and bring it to school to take part in a fashion show next Friday 9th February. Class teachers will choose their favourite t-shirt and this will be announced in our 'fashion-show' assembly where children can parade their creations down our catwalk! From the class winners, Rosa House Captains will choose 1 overall winner and also select a handful of winners from the paper designs. There will be little prizes for everyone who designs a t-shirt on the day and masses of house points to win!

Thank you to everyone who attended our school Book Fair. This is always a popular event and one which not only gives children the chance to pick up brand new books at bargain prices but also enabled us to purchase lots of lovely new books for our children to enjoy!

Have a great weekend everyone, Mrs E Williams
