Diary Dates!

Remembrance Day

Each year, on 11th November, we take time to pause, reflect and remember the brave men, women and animals who have served and sacrificed so much for the peace and freedom we enjoy today.

Remembrance Day is an important opportunity for our children to think about courage, kindness, sacrifice and the importance of living peacefully alongside one another.

To help us mark this special time, we are inviting children and parents to take part in our Remembrance Creative Competition! Together, you can create a piece of artwork inspired by Remembrance Day, whether through poppies, paintings, drawings, collages or something completely different.

All entries should be brought into school by Monday 9th November, with the winners announced on Wednesday 11th November.

We look forward to seeing your wonderful creations as we come together as a school community to remember, reflect and give thanks.

Have a lovely weekend,
Mrs E Williams
